July 10, 2015 Lightning Fire Update

Yreka, CA – Storms moved through the area again last night producing lightning on the northwest and northern edges of the Forest, as well as the western part of the Goosenest Ranger District. Only three additional smoke reports were received. These are located in the upper Thompson Creek area and the north end of the Siskiyou Wilderness on or near the Happy Camp/ Oak Knoll Ranger District.

Significant amounts of rainfall were reported from the field and crews continue to patrol for slides, water and debris. Please be aware of changing weather conditions when traveling on or near forest roads.

- Happy Camp/Oak Knoll Ranger District
 - Happy Camp area is reporting that 12 fires from yesterday are all contained and in patrol status. Three additional smoke reports located in the upper Thompson Creek area and the north end of the Siskiyou Wilderness were received.
 - Of the 15 fires reported in Oak Knoll area; two are being managed by the Rogue River-Siskiyou National Forest, the remaining 13 are being managed locally by a type 3 team. All of the Oak Knoll fires are contained, controlled, out or in patrol status.
- Salmon/Scott River Ranger District has reported that the Counts fire, located just north of the contingency line that was constructed for the White's fire last season has been declared out. There are no new fires on the district.
- Goosenest Ranger District has reported no new fires.
